FIELD TRIPS

The field trips are designed to complement a particular lecture in the lecture series and are held in the week following that lecture. Tickets for field trips are available only to lecture-series ticket-holders. Registration is limited by capacity of busses and places to be visited. Each trip is offered on two dates—please indicate preferred date. The cost of luncheons, ranging from $1.25 to $2.00, is not included in the tour price. Such costs will be collected on the day of the trip. There are no refunds on field-trip tickets. When possible, exchanges may be arranged with other subscribers at the lecture preceding each tour. A complete schedule and description of field trips will be mailed to all ticket-holders. In general, trip schedule is 8:45 A.M. to 4:00 P.M.

- Sept. 25 (Tues.) 9:00 A.M. Assemble at 64 East Lake Street. The tour will proceed by bus to the 26 (Wed.) Tinley Park Mental Hospital. Upon arrival one half of the group will tour the hospital while the other half of the group meets with members of the hospital staff for a discussion of hospital facilities and programs in the area of psychotherapy, occupational therapy, etc.; then proceed in reverse. The group will then go to the Oak Forest Infirmary, for the chronically ill. Group members will be the guests of the hospital for luncheon which will be served in the hospital cafeteria. After luncheon the group will tour the hospital and view its outstanding programs of physical rehabilitation. Return to 64 East Lake Street.
- Oct. 9 (Tues.) 9:00 A.M. Assemble at 64 East Lake Street. The tour will proceed by bus to the 10 (Wed.) Ditto Corporation, a subsidiary of the Bell & Howell Company, for coffee and a brief lecture by Mr. Charles H. Percy, Chairman of the Board of Directors of Bell & Howell. The group will then proceed to the plant for a tour demonstrating the complicated effects of the liberalization of our trade policy on this industry. The busses will take the group to the Old Orchard Shopping Center where tour members will be free to lunch at restaurants of their choice. The tour will reconvene at 1:45 P.M. and proceed to G. D. Searle & Company to view the automated processes involved in the manufacture of pharmaceuticals. Return to 64 East Lake Street.
- Oct. 23 (Tues.) 9:30 A.M. Assemble in the Appellate Courtroom on the 21st floor of the 30 North 24 (Wed.) Michigan Avenue Building to hear the oral argument of a case before the Appellate Court of the First District of Illinois. At the conclusion of the hearing (about 11:30) tour members will be free to lunch at restaurants of their choice. The tour will reconvene at 12:45 and will be divided into two groups. Group I will meet at the bus parked on Clark and Randolph in front of the County Building. Group II will meet in the office of the Clerk of the Circuit Court of Cook County on the 4th floor of the County Building, Clark and Randolph. Each group will visit the Municipal and Criminal Courts, and at the Family Court will be privileged to be present at a hearing.
- Nov. 7 (Wed.) 8:45 A.M. Assemble at 64 East Lake Street and proceed by bus, accompanied by 8 (Thurs.) guides from the Board of Education, to the Byrd School. After a brief orientation the group will visit the classrooms to view their most modern teaching facilities and to see the closed circuit TV in operation. The group will then go to the Doolittle school for a brief lecture on the mental health and learning project sponsored by the Wieboldt Foundation. Luncheon ($1.25) will be served at the Dunbar Vocational School. After lunch the group will meet the principal and tour the school to view the training facilities of this widely known institution. Miss Louise G. Dougherty, Superintendent of District 11, will also address the group about the various work-study projects under way at the Dunbar School. The group will then proceed by bus to view mobile classroom units. Return to 64 East Lake Street.
- Nov. 19 (Mon.) 9:00 A.M. Assemble at the Midwest Stock Exchange at 120 South La Salle Street to 20 (Tues.) see the computing and data processing machines and to learn about their capabilities and implications. After a trip to the floor of the Exchange, proceed by bus to John Sexton and Company to view automated material handling. Lunch at the Saddle and Sirloin Room of the Stockyards Inn ($2.00). Following lunch, proceed by bus to Burny Brothers Bakery to see completely automatic production processes. Return to 64 East Lake Street.

THE DOWNTOWN CENTER, located at 64 East Lake Street, is a part of the Extension Division of the University of Chicago. It makes the intellectual resources of the University available to the intelligent, concerned adult in the Chicago area by offering special non-credit programs of liberal and professional education. Among the latter are the Basic Program of Liberal Education for Adults, the Fine Arts Program, the Leadership Training Consultation Center, and a series of Special Courses, including seminars, workshops, and tours. All these programs are described in detail in the new 1962-63 Annual Prospectus, which is available on request from the Downtown Center, 64 East Lake Street, Financial 6-8300.

THE WOMAN'S COLLEGE BOARD of Chicago, established in 1933, is a non-profit organization serving thirty liberal arts colleges and their local alumnae. It is a co-sponsor of the "Know Your Chicago" series, an associate member of the Chicago Educational Television Association, and a sponsor of radio programs by member colleges. Other services include free college counseling for high school girls and publication of an Alumnae Club Guide and a Handbook of Information about member colleges. Admissions conferences are arranged with college representatives, and placement counseling is provided. Headquarters for all these services are in Room 1801, 30 North Michigan Avenue, ANdover 3-4981.
